

Claremont Athletics

'A Year in Review' – 2012/13

BC's - a total of 9 teams

Cross Country (Lehm Mcguire)
Sr. Lacrosse – 2nd
Jr. Lacrosse – 3rd
Sr. Girls Basketball (14th)
Jr. Girls Basketball (8th)
Sr Boys Basketball (10th)
Badminton (12th)
Track and Field
Golf (11th)

Islands - total of 16 teams (including many Lower Island Champs)

Cross Country
Sr. Boys Volleyball (7th)
Jr. Girls Volleyball (2nd in city, 5th @ Islands)
Sr. Girls Volleyball (3rd in city, 6th at Islands)
Sr Boys Soccer (4th at Islands)
Sr. Girls Field Hockey (4th)
Sr. Boys Basketball (Island Champs and City Champs)
Sr. Girls Basketball (2nd)
Jr. Girls Basketball (Island Champs and City Champs)
Aquatics – 2nd overall
Badminton (2nd in city, 2nd at Islands)
Jr. Girls Soccer – 4th
Golf – 4th
Jr. Boys Soccer – 5th
Jr Boys Rugby – 3rd
Track and Field

Special Notes

-Nolan Mitchell – High School (BCSS) Provincial Champion - Wrestling (2nd year in a row)
-Rowing - 3 National banners won in St. Catherines in June regatta

- CSI rower, Sofia Donnecke is named to the Junior National team
- Samantha Heron (Michigan) and Ali Zwicker (Virginia) have attained NCAA scholarships and both earned a place on the Junior National team
- Adam Donaldson was also named to the Junior National team

-Basketball – Claremont produces 4 provincial team members and 1 national team candidate
-Taylor Montgomery Stinson and Alex Jordache (U17 BC team), Calli McMillan Beaucamp (U15 BC team), and Marissa Dheensaw (U17 BC and National team invite)
-Lacrosse – 10 graduating players (and likely 2 more) have all received NCAA D1 or D2 scholarships to schools throughout the U.S equating to close to a $1,000,000 in value
-Jake Cullen (Albany), Jordan Green (Marquette), Matt Hamilton (Providence), Stu Smith (Bellarmine), Ryan Taylor and Kristian Mousseau (Brevard), Austin Holgate (Coker), Brock Thompson Marshall (District of Columbia), Darrin Wilson (Tusculum), and Brennan Stothers (Ohio Wesleyan)

Almost every one of Claremont's sports teams played at the tops of their respective leagues to qualify for city playoffs - another tremendous year for Claremont Athletics and the Spartan Nation!!!!